A Touching Story

is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Kyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At the Red Cross Pharmacy and Parlor Drug Store. Prices 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

SEARCHING FOR IT?

Some Barre Citizens Can Tell You Where It's Found.

If you have any itching of the skin, Irritating Eczema, Itching Piles. You're looking for relief. Searching for a cure. Barre people have found a cure for itching skin diseases.

They tell about it. Read what this citizen says.

F. S. Sandler (farmer) of West Topsham, says: "I was subject to itching hemorrhoids, commonly called piles, for a number of years despite the use of innumerable salves and ointments brought to my notice by friends and acquaintances and through the Barre newspapers and other sources of information. The malady, disease or complaint, term it what you will, was often bad enough in the winter, but in hot weather the itching and annoyance was unendurable. I heard of Doan's Ointment and got a box at E. A. Drown's drug store in Barre. When it effectually stopped such an old and chronic case as mine, which had resisted every effort on my part to check it, let alone cure, I have often wondered what this remedy would do in the incipient stages of that far too common annoyance, piles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

BOUGHT VALUABLE DOG.

C. H. Mower Now the Owner of the Boston Terrier Ted IV.

Burlington, Aug. 12.—The following from the "Field & Fancy" of New York city will be of interest to dog fanciers: "G. A. Eidenburg of Hyde Park, Mass., has sold the young Boston Terrier Ted IV. to C. H. Mower of Burlington."

"Ted IV. is a light weight, and his windings comprise first limit at Brain-tree in June, and second lightweight limit at the Boston Terrier specialty show last November, where there was a class of 36. Ted IV. is a grandson of the famous 'Crackman', by Buffer B., out of Marion."

"Ted IV. was spoken of in the highest terms at the Specialty Show club last November and since that time has improved wonderfully. We bespeak for this dog a prosperous future in the ring as a show dog and a sire."

A QUARTET OF QUAKER RANGES FREE

A Quaker Range Voting Contest Absolutely Without Precedent.

4 QUAKER RANGES FREE

The Times Offers This Number to the Four Ladies Who Receive the Most Votes Under Conditions Indicated Below.

The QUAKER RANGE is world famous, and is well known to the good cooks of Vermont. It is made by the White Warner Co., a guarantee of good faith, and is sold by leading dealers everywhere. All persons unfamiliar with its merits may secure, on application at this office, a full description of this excellent range.

How the Ranges Will Be Distributed.

Range No. 1.—To the lady receiving the most votes in Berlin, Williamstown (excepting Foxville or that portion of Graniteville not in Williamstown), Brookfield and that part of Barre town west of Stevens' Brook.

Range No. 2.—To the lady receiving the most votes in Barre town east of Stevens' branch and that part of Graniteville and Foxville located in Williamstown.

Range No. 3.—To the lady receiving the most votes in Orange, Washington, Chelsea or West Topsham.

Range No. 4.—To the lady receiving the most votes in East Montpelier, Plainfield, Marshfield, Groton, Cabot or Calais.

Contest Begins June 20.

The contest will begin June 20 and close Sept. 21 at 9 p. m.

Ranges will be delivered immediately.

Special Announcement.

In case that two bona fide contestants do not appear in any contest, or that the total number of votes in any contest fails to reach 1,000, the prizes in that contest will be withdrawn and will be awarded to the lady receiving the highest second in any other contest.

Conditions of the Contest.

One range will be given to the lady receiving the highest number of votes in any contest.

No coupons will be sold at this office and no papers will be sold in quantities. No coupons will be printed in the paper, but will be issued as specified in the paragraph following.

One twenty-five vote coupon will be issued for every $1.25 that is paid in on subscriptions to the Times, but no coupons will be issued for fractional parts of a dollar, or for any subscription of less than six months. This applies to either old or new subscribers. One twenty-five vote coupon for every $1.25 paid, no more, no less.

To prevent trading among contestants, those who receive coupons should fill them out at once. No coupon will be counted upon which two names appear, even if one of them has been erased. After coupons are once credited no transfer will be made.

Any contestant is at liberty to canvass anywhere for subscriptions no matter where she resides, but the prize winner must be a bona fide resident of the town to which the range is to be awarded, as indicated above.

Any one intending to canvass for these ranges should write to this office at once for instructions, and printed matter.

All votes recorded in the Times will be held and be open for the inspection by any candidate until after the contest closes.

THE GRAFTERS.

In the great lexicon of high finance there are no such words as widows and orphans.—Baltimore American.

It is predicted the Decalogue will find a place in politics. Then we may hope the Golden Rule will be considered in business.—Pittsburg Gazette.

In nearly 100 years the government has received only $400,000 for its conscience fund, which is an indication that the larger the graft the smaller the conscience.—Baltimore Sun.

THE HALL OF SHAME.

The hall of shame in New York is much larger than the Hall of Fame.—Atchison Globe.

A hall of shame seems also to be assuming the semblance of a necessity in this country.—Kansas City Star.

Brittany Bridal Feasts.

Conspicuous among the adornments of the bridal feast in Brittany is an artistic and elaborate butter structure as fanciful and elegant as the most beautiful bridal cake, and into this structure the guests stick split sticks bearing coins of gold or silver.

Praying Phantasies.

Dr. Theodore Hornblower of Jersey City, N. J., used to have some educated phantasies. He would call them around him and say, "We will now bow our heads in prayer." Down would go every head to the very ground and remain there until the doctor said "Amen." Then, with a loud noise, the beautiful birds would run away.
